87.(1) If any thing has been seized under this Act, the Director General may at any time after that before it is forfeited under this Act and is not otherwise required for the purpose of any proceedings under this Act, or for the purpose of any prosecution under any other law, release the thing to the person as he determines to be lawfully entitled to the thing, and in such event neither the Director General nor the Government, shall be liable to any proceedings by any person, if the seizure and the release of the thing had been effected in good faith.

(2) A record in writing shall be made by the Director General effecting the release of anything under subsection (1) specifying the circumstances of, and the reason for, the release.

Power to seal

88.(1) Where, by reason of their nature, size or amount, it is not practicable to remove any record, veterinary appliance, material or other thing under Section 87(1)(a), the authorised officer shall by any means,-

(a) place the record, veterinary or medical appliance, equipment, material or other thing in a room, compartment or cabinet located on that premises; and

(b) mark, fasten and seal the container, door or opening providing access to the room, compartment or cabinet.

(2) Where an authorised officer has reasonable cause to believe that any premises is being used as a place to practice veterinary medicine by an unregistered person, the authorised officer may by any means seal the premises.

(3) The person occupying or using the premises as a place to practise, if the premises has been sealed, may within twenty-one days of such sealing produce to the Director General the registration certificate and practising certificate of the alleged unregistered person referred to in subsection (2).

(4) The seal under subsection (2) shall be removed if the person referred to in subsection (3) complies with the requirement of that subsection.

(5) It shall be an offence for any person without lawful authority to break, tamper with or damage the seal referred to in subsections (1) or (2) or remove any record, veterinary appliance, equipment, material or other things under seal or to attempt to do so.

Power to require attendance of person acquainted with case

89.(1) An authorised officer making investigation under this Act may by order in writing require the attendance before himself of any person who appears to the authorised officer to be acquainted with the facts and circumstances of the case, and such person shall attend as so required.

(2) If any person refuses to attend as so required, the authorised officer may report such refusal to a Magistrate who shall issue a summons to secure the attendance of the person as may be required by the order made under subsection (1).

Examination of person acquainted with the case

90.(1) An authorised officer making an investigation under this Act may examine orally or in writing any person supposed to be acquainted with the facts and circumstances of the case.

(2) The person shall be legally bound to answer all questions relating to the case put to him by the authorised officer, but the person may refuse to answer any questions which would have a tendency to expose him to a criminal charge or penalty or forfeiture.

(3) A person making a statement under this section shall be legally bound to the truth, whether or not such statement is made wholly or partly in answer to questions.

(4) An authorised officer examining a person under subsection (1) shall first inform that person of the provisions of subsections (2) and (3)

(5) A statement made by any person under this section, whether or not caution has been administered to him under subsection 90(2)(a) shall, whenever possible, be reduced into writing and signed by the person making it or affixed with his thumbprint, as the case may be :-

(a) after it has been read to him in the language in which he made it; and

(b) after he has been given an opportunity to make any correction he may wish.

Statement to be admissible in evidence

91.(1) Where any person is charged with an offence under this Act, any statement, whether the statement amounts to a confession or not, or is oral or in writing, made at any time, whether before or after the person is charged, and whether in the course of an investigation under this Act or not, and whether or not wholly or partly in answer to questions, by that person to or in the hearing of an authorised officer and whether or not interpreted to him by another autho-ised officer, shall notwithstanding any other written law to the contrary, be admissible in evidence at his trial and, if the person charged tenders himself as a witness, any such statement may be used in cross-examination and for the purpose of impeaching his credit.

(2) The statement referred to in subsection (1) :-

(a) shall not be admissible or used under that subsection :-

(i) if the making of the statement appears to the court to have been caused by any inducement, threat or promise having reference to the charge proceeding from a person in authority and sufficient in the opinion of the court to give the person charged grounds which would appear to him reasonable for supposing that by making it he would gain any advantage or avoid any evil of a temporal nature in reference to the proceeding against him; or
(ii) in the case of a statement made by the person after his arrest, unless the court is satisfied that caution was administered to him in the following words or words to the like effect:

“ It is my duty to warn you that you are not obliged to say anything or to answer any question, but anything you say, whether in answer to a question or not may be given in evidence”; and

(b) if made by any person before there is time to caution him, shall not be rendered inadmissible in evidence merely by reason of no such caution having been administered if it has been administered as soon as possible.

(3) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any written law, a person charged for an offence to which subsection (1) applies shall not be bound to answer any question relating to the case after a caution under subsection (2) has been administered to him.

Duty to assist authorised officer

92.(1) Whenever an authorised officer exercises his power under this Act it shall be the duty of the registered practitioner or the owner or occupier of any premises used as a place to practise and any person found therein:

(a) to provide the authorised officer with the facility and assistance as the authorised officer may reasonably require;

(b) to give the authorised officer all reasonable information required by him in respect of the premises or facility, as the case may be, relating to its management or any other matter connected therewith; and

(c) to produce any book, record or document, printed or electronic in his possession or custody or under his control or within his power to furnish relating to the affairs of the place of practice.

(2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

Forfeiture of goods seized

93.(1) Any books, records, veterinary appliance, materials or any other thing seized in exercise of any power conferred under this Act shall be liable to forfeiture.

(2) An order for the forfeiture or for the release of all the things seized and liable to forfeiture under this Act shall be made by the court before which the prosecution with regard thereto has been held and an order for the forfeiture of the things seized shall be made, if it is proved to the satisfaction of the court that an offence under this Act has been committed and that the things seized were the subject matter of or were used in the commission of the offence, notwithstanding that no person may have been convicted of such offence.

(3) If there is no prosecution with regard to anything seized in exercise of any power conferred under this Act, such thing shall be taken and deemed to be forfeited at the expiration of one calendar month from the date of service of a notice to the last known address of the person from whom the thing was seized indicating that there is no prosecution in respect of such thing, unless before that date a claim thereto is made in the manner set out in subsections (4), (5) and (6).
(4) Any person asserting that he is the owner of the thing seized referred to in subsection (3), which is not liable to forfeiture may personally or by his agent, authorised in writing, give written notice to the authorised officer in whose custody such thing is held that he claims the thing.

(5) On receipt of the notice referred to in subsection (4), the authorised officer shall refer the matter to the Magistrate.

(6) The Magistrate to whom the matter is referred under subsection (5) shall issue a summons requiring the person asserting that he is the owner of the thing seized and the person from whom it was seized, to appear before the Magistrate, and on their appearance or default to appear, due service of the summons having been proved, the Magistrate shall proceed to the examination of the matter and on proof that an offence under this Act has been committed and that the thing seized was the subject matter of or was used in the commission of such offence, shall order the thing to be forfeited and shall, in the absence of such proof, order its release.

(7) Subject to subsection (2) anything forfeited or deemed to be forfeited shall be delivered to the authorised officer and shall be disposed as may be determined by the Director General.

Cost of holding goods seized

94. Where anything seized under this Act is held in the custody of the Government pending completion of any proceeding in respect of an offence under this Act, the cost of holding such thing in custody shall, in the event of any person being found guilty of an offence, be a debt due to the Government by such person and shall be recoverable accordingly.

No cost or damages arising from seizure to be recoverable

95. No person shall, in any proceedings before any court in respect of anything seized in the exercise or the purported exercise of any power conferred under this Act, be entitled to the costs of such proceedings or to any damages or other relief unless such seizure was made without reasonable cause.

Production of official authority card

96. An authorised officer exercising powers under this Act shall at all times carry the authority card issued under subsection 81(2) and no person shall admit to his premises or facility any person purporting to be an authorised officer except upon production of the authority card.

Compounding of offences

97.(1) No offer to compound shall be made without the written consent of the Public Prosecutor.

(2) The Director General or any person authorised in writing by the Director General may compound any of the offences specified, committed by any person under this Act, or under any Regulations made under this Act, by making a written offer to such person reasonably suspected of having committed the offence to compound the offence upon payment to the Director General or any person authorised in writing by the Director General such amount not exceeding fifty per centum of the amount of maximum fine for that offence to which that person would have been liable if he had been convicted of the offence, within such time as may be specified in the offer.
(3) An offer under subsection (2) may be made at any time after the offence has been committed but before any prosecution of it has been instituted and where the amount specified in the offer is not paid within the time specified in the offer or within such extended period as the Director General or any person authorised in writing by the Director General may grant, prosecution of the offence may be instituted at any time thereafter against the person to whom the offer was made.

(4) Where an offence has been compounded under subsection (2):

(a) no prosecution shall thereafter be instituted in respect of such offence against the person whom the offer to compound was made; and

(b) any book, record, document, apparatus, equipment, instrument, material, article, substance or any other thing seized in connection with the offence, may be released immediately subject to such terms and conditions as may be imposed.

(2) This Part shall cease to be in force if Parliament, by resolution passed by each of the Houses of Parliament and published in the Gazette, provides that this Part shall no longer continue to remain in force.

Notice to registered person to serve as a veterinary officer in the public services
99.(1) Every person who obtains registration under section 39 shall be liable immediately upon being so registered or at any time thereafter to be served with a written notice issued by or on behalf of the Director General requiring such person to assume appointment as a Veterinary officer in such post, in such public service and on such date, as may, in each of these respects, be specified in the notice.

(2) A person served with the notice under subsection (1) shall comply with such notice, and if he fails to do so he shall be served with a show cause notice.

(3) Any person served with the show cause notice referred to in subsection (2) shall reply to the notice within thirty days of the date of the said notice.

(4) When any person replies to the show cause notice served under subsection (2) within the time specified, the reply shall be considered by the Council, and if the Council -

(a) accepts the explanation contained therein, the Council shall direct the person to assume appointment as a Veterinary officer in such post, in such public service and on such date, as shall be specified in the notice; or

(b) does not accept the explanation or any part of the explanation contained therein, the Council shall direct the Veterinary Registrar to strike off from the Veterinary Register the name of such person.
(5) When any person fails to reply to the show cause notice served under subsection (2) within the time specified, the Veterinary Registrar shall strike off from the Veterinary Register the name of such person.

(6) Where the name of a person has been struck off from the Veterinary Register under subsection (4), it shall not be restored to the Veterinary Register except upon a direction by the Minister, and the Minister may give such direction upon an application in writing being made to him by the person whose name has been struck off from the Veterinary Register.

(7) Any direction given by the Minister under subsection (6) in respect of any person may be made subject to the fulfillment of such terms and conditions as the Minister may deem fit to impose, and such terms and conditions may include terms and conditions requiring the person to serve as a veterinary officer to the satisfaction of the Director General for a continuous total period as determined by the Director General in such post or posts in one or more of the public services as may from time to time be determined by the Director General at his discretion.

(8) While the person whose name is restored under subsection (6) is fulfilling the terms and conditions imposed under subsection (7) he shall be deemed to be registered so far as is necessary to fulfill the terms and conditions imposed under subsection (7) and for such other purposes as the Minister may direct, but not further; and upon fulfillment of the terms and conditions imposed under subsection (7) he shall be entitled to a certificate issued by the Director General as evidence of such fulfillment, and his registration shall be reinstated.

(9) The decision of the Minister upon an application made to him under subsection (6) for the restoration of a name on the Veterinary Register shall be final and shall not be questioned or reviewed in any court.

(10) Where a notice under subsection (1) has been served on any person liable to be served therewith, the Director General may at any time cancel the notice, and, if he thinks fit, cause to be served on him a further notice under subsection (1).

Period of service in pursuance of a notice under subsection 99(1)

100. (1) A person who commences to serve in a post in a public service in pursuance of a notice issued under subsection 99(1), shall continue to serve in that post or such other subsequent post or posts in the same or other public service as may from time to time be determined by the Director General at his discretion, for a continuous total period to be prescribed, to the satisfaction of the Director General.

(2) Any person who fails to comply with the provisions of subsection (1) shall be served with a show cause notice.

(3) Any person served with the show cause notice referred to in subsection (2) shall reply to the notice within thirty days of the date of the said notice.

(4) When any person replies to the show cause notice served under subsection (2) within the time specified, the reply shall be considered by the Council, and if the Council -

   (c) accepts the explanation contained therein, the Council shall direct the person to continue to serve in that post or such other subsequent post or posts in the same or other public service as may from time to time be determined by the Director General at his discretion; or
(d) does not accept the explanation or any part of the explanation contained therein, the Council shall direct the Registrar to strike off from the Veterinary Register the name of such person.

(5) When any person fails to reply to the show cause notice within the time specified in subsection (3), the Registrar shall strike off from the Register the name of such person.

Power of Minister to grant reduction, exemption or postponement from period of service under section 100

101.(1) The Minister may, by order published in the Gazette -

(a) in respect of any particular person;

(b) generally in respect of any class of persons during such period as he may specify; or

(c) generally in respect of all persons during such period as he may specify;

grant such reduction as he may consider appropriate or complete exemption from the period of service required under section 100.

(2) The Minister may, upon application being made to him in writing by any person liable to undergo the period of service required under section 100, grant to such person postponement from commencing such service, for such period as he may consider appropriate if he is satisfied that it would be just and reasonable to do so.

(3) The Minister may, upon application being made to him in writing by any person undergoing the period of service required under section 100, grant to such person postponement from completing such service, for such period as he may consider appropriate if he is satisfied that it would be just and reasonable to do so.

(4) The decision of the Minister upon an application made to him under subsection (2) or (3) shall be final and shall not be questioned or reviewed in any court.

Minister may make rules

102. The Minister may make rules for carrying into effect the objects and purposes of this Part.

PART IX

General

Fraudulent registration

103.(1) Any person who fraudulently procures or attempts to procure himself or any other person to be registered by making or producing, or causing to be made or produced, any false or fraudulent representation or declaration, either orally or in writing, shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

(2) In relation to subsection (1), if such person is registered, the Council or the Veterinary Para-Professionals’ Committee shall have absolute discretion to suspend the person forthwith, pending an inquiry or a charge being brought against him in court.
